Western Canadian Crop Production Show – 2012

Now in its 29th year, the Western Canadian Crop Production Show continues to connect industry leading manufacturers with decision making producers. This show is marketed through a variety of media outlets throughout the Prairie Provinces and you can expect an audience of more than 16,000 quality buyers over the 4-day event.

NEW features of the 2012 show will include “Spraying Innovations – Crop Technology Clinic” and “Production Agronomy Sessions” presented by the Saskatchewan Institute of Agrologists.

January 9 – 12, 2012 Saskatoon Prairieland Park will present this premier agricultural event and due to the huge demand for show space, we encourage you to submit your application by September 9, 2011.

IMPORTANT NOTICE:

Due to the ongoing road construction in and around Saskatoon to facilitate the new south bridge, we strongly encourage companies with large equipment to call ahead and make routing arrangements. It is your responsibility to contact City of Saskatoon Infrastructure Services to secure permits for oversize equipment.
